

Dear Prospective Patron

With our 2015-2016 Concert Series, the Seaway Winds Concert Band will be celebrating our Fifteenth Season offering popular concert band music in the Stormont, Dundas and Glengarry area. The band members range in age from intermediate school students to senior citizens and enjoy extending our musical skills to ever appreciative audiences.

Seaway Winds has a continuing need for funds to obtain new music, special instruments, rental of concert halls and other expenses. In order to continue to provide our audiences with quality entertainment, we would like to invite you to become a Patron of the Seaway Winds. All donations are tax deductible. With your permission, your generosity would be acknowledged in our concert programs and on our web site (www.seawaywinds.ca) for the donation levels:

Ovation Circle: $25 - $99
Soloist's Circle: $150 - $199

Performer's Circle: $100 - $149
Conductor's Circle: $200 or more

If you are able to help, please include your full mailing address and make your cheque payable to Seaway Winds and send it to:

Shelley McIntyre
56 Santa Cruz Dr., Box 396
Ingleside ON K0C 1M0

The 2015-2016 Concert Series will include three concerts :

Sat. Oct. 17, 2015 8:00pm: " Fabulous Fifteen" : Seaway Winds opens its 15th season performing favourite pieces from each of its 15 years, including soloists , Raymond Lacroix, clarinetist and Gilles Lepage, alto saxophonist at Aultsville Theatre.

Sun. Dec. 6, 2015 2:30pm: " Christmas Pageantry" : Assoc. Director, Gilles Lepage leads Seaway Winds along with guest soloist , Helen McAlear and the St. Peter's Church Youth Choir to celebrate the pageantry of the season at St. Peter's Church

Sat. May 14, 2016 8:00pm: " Tribute... " : Seaway Winds pays tribute to songwriters and singers, places, events, even animals with guest MC , soloist and narrator, Chris Coyea , who is the Director of the Theatre Dept. at St. Lawrence College, Brockville.

We thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Barb Hunter, Founding Director,
Seaway Winds Concert Band
Bbhunter2008@hotmail.com
613-534-2111